This letter is in response to the letter dated July 28, 2015 from the Federal Election Commission requesting additional information in respect to the July Quarterly Report filed by Jim Banks for Congress, Inc. This represents the additional information for the two items noted in the letter.

1.) Attached is a copy of the check representing the corrective action we are taking to correct an in-kind contribution on our report that does not have a "long-term useful life". We have returned the excess contribution to the donor.

2.) Attached are copies of statements from each of the organizations not registered with the Commission. The documents are statements signed by the unregistered organizations stating that they can demonstrate that the organization has received sufficient funds to make the contribution that was reported.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey R. Lyons
Treasurer
Jim Banks for Congress, Inc.
